Chapter 1 by Omar Elamin

Welcome whoever you people are, to GGO! I stole this idea completely from somewhere else but you can sue me later.

Lets throw out the rules!

Start each new chapter with you're character's name.

e.x.

John

Next~ You start off with 1000 points of cash. (That's not even enough to buy you a used revolver.) hint hint, nudge nudge

Do NOT give yourself items or make good things happen to you, only I can do that. e.x. #1 is not allowed e.x. #2 is.

e.x. #1

John

I go to the store to look around for good guns to save up for.

(Try to make your chapters longer 'cause this is a story.)

I give the place, not you.

Every now and then I will reset the items. You lose all weapons but keep cash. So sell everything... This is to keep the game fair. If a newbie jumps in and goes out he would get shot down by XxMLG360SWAGGYMANxX because Xx MLG dude has played for a year.

You must have your inventory items in the beginning of your entry, don't try to add new things, I will check.

To be a valid entry it must:
1. Start with name.
2. Interact with story and if you want to another player. (Can't force XxMLG dude to give you his stuff, you can ask)
3. Must have inven. items in beginning.

Now. Let us begin.

Players spawn...

North is the gun shop.

East is the clothing dept.

South is the main walkway/hub.

One moment please.

I follow the blue headed guy south. He looks like a higher level, probably going to town. I didn't know any armor set names, so despite having the highest item level gun, I still need armor. Got the gold for it though, hope I don't need any of those stupid in game tokens like wow for a good armor set. Oh well, can probably just buy something off the auction house. Just need to avoid pvp for a minute. Ah, looks like it is disabled in the beginner zone anyway. Alright baby, so far so good.

3. ZoneChat: Swaglord: Need two more for baron gungrave! PST for invites.

Eh, its best if I skip this low level crap. Need to follow blue head into town.
